

Final Note from Madi-chan

madi-anime.com

Well, there you have it. I think it looks a lot better now... It actually looked a little crappy before... But it was fun to do... All four times that I did it, I'm not going to redo it a fifth time! I'm so tired now. I did this for 7 hours straight today. Must... sleep... ZZZZZZZZZZ.... anyway!

I need to make some notes:

- 1) The character information was not in the original Japanese version. I added these in because I felt like it and I was tired of everyone asking me who's who.
- 2) The mystery man at the end: No one knows for sure who this is. Could be Yoh, could be Hao, could be both. Yoh and Hao may have merged at the end. Who knows?

If you are wondering, I added these notes at the end because a friend of mine wouldn't stop bugging me until I did it!
